

AFT Monthly Update

AFT Members attend the annual Curtis Orchard Trip

food bank in hopes to help those in need for the upcoming holiday season.

AFT has quite a few events coming up soon. In November, we have our monthly meeting and Dean Foods' info session; we are also hosting our first fundraising event of the year, a bean bag tournament, on November 14. In December, AFT will have its annual progressive dinner where members will travel from apartment to apartment sampling dishes created by club members. We will also have our holiday party and monthly meeting.

The Association of Food Technologists (AFT) at the University of Illinois recently had a couple of successful events in October. One event took place on Saturday, October 16, 2010. AFT took a trip to Curtis Orchard in Champaign, IL. AFT members were able to pick pumpkins, apples, and get some goodies from the country store.

From October 14 to October 26, 2010, AFT held a food drive for the Eastern Illinois Food Bank. AFT collected non-perishable goods that were donated to the Eastern Illinois Food Bank.

Overall, AFT donated 70 pounds of food to the

Aft member Dennis Sudirdjo delivers 70 pounds of food to the Eastern Illinois Food Bank