

Guest Speakers Needed to Inspire the Next Generation of Food Scientists and Culinologists!

Mike Wanous, Adjunct Professor
Food Science, Dominican University

Junior and Seniors in the (soon to be IFT-approved) Food Science program at Dominican University, River Forest, IL are interested in informally learning about your career and professional advice as they embark upon their own careers!

Guest speakers are sought for FOOD SCIENCE SEMINAR, a capstone course meeting Wednesday evenings, 6:30 – 9:30pm (through the first week in December) in which upperclassmen learn more about the food industry and professional options to use their knowledge.

This course is taught by Mike Wanous, an Adjunct Professor of Food Science at Dominican University and a CSIFT Member. Please contact him at mwanous@dom.edu or 630-668-8820 if you'd like to learn more about this worthwhile and rewarding opportunity.
