CSIFT Business Report:

Lynnda Nelson

Lynnda Nelson is looking for feedback and help from IFT on how we get feedback from members on these 6 questions. Linda Perucca is reaching out to IFT on behalf of the Chicago Section.

1. Were you previously an IFT Student Member?
2. Have you ever been a member of IFT?
3. Are you a Full Time Student?
4. How did you hear about IFT?
5. Years in food industry?
6. Are IFT employees paying CSIFT dues to be members of our section?

John Chambers announced to save the date for the leadership training program. June 11th, 2014.

Sue Monckton Scholarship Discussion

There was discussion for ways to start a memorial scholarship. The discussion was tabled until our next meeting on May 12th as the Scholarship Committee Chair (Nancy Moriarity) was not in attendance. John Chambers will work with Nancy to have continued discussion in May.

IFT Bylaws Discussion

As a Section we have questions for IFT on the new bylaws that were recently announced. There has been a task force put together by John Chambers that includes; John Chambers, John Budin, Glenn Bluemer, and Manoj Shah. This taskforce will negotiate with IFT on the language of the bylaws and will communicate back to CSIFT leadership. Bylaws will need to be updated and ratified no later than July 31, 2015. More details to come.

Hospitality/ Student Night

Hospitality committee met and reviewed topics. They will launch a mentor program in the fall and will have a firm plan by the May meeting.

There was discussion about changing the date for our Student Night activities to better fit the students and their classes. The Committee had the largest Student Night turnout in October 2013. Keith is going to poll the universities to see when it works best for them and then next meeting we will vote on a date for the next Student Night.

House Committee:

Manoj Shah

Manoj said that there are a few locations that are very expensive and are not easy to work with so for next year, he would like to try to find some different options. It was brought up that we would like to have a meeting downtown. The committee is exploring options to have a meeting in Chicago.

C-FAR – Dormant until further notice.

Social Media - In March Hoostsuite was introduced as a time saving tool that will help to build our Social Media presence, growth, and engagement. A few questions were asked in regards to the difference in our approach to the different CSFIT networks: LinkedIn, Twitter, and Facebook. A review was given to the ExCom.

Membership Committee:

Sharim Lane / Joy Dell'Agrina

As part of our outreach for our lapsed membership, a lot of the people who have lapsed are unemployed and can't afford. It was decided that we are interested in exploring a "hardship" program. We could work together with IFT to get that going. The committee has been working on a banner to have at the membership booth. An idea was passed around for people to check out. The VIP program discussed last month will be beta tested at the Tanner lecture next month.
