Tanner Award – Call for Nominations

Nominees for the Tanner Lectureship are sought. The Tanner Lecturer should be a world-class, well-recognized researcher and excellent speaker. The nominee may be from industry, government or university and has developed unique technology in the area of food science or related disciplines which has significant impact on the food industry.

The Lecturer may be from any country. It is preferred that the candidate be from outside the Chicago IFT Section. The award consists of an honorarium of $2,000, a plaque and reimbursement of travel expenses. The Tanner lecture will be presented in May 2013.

Nominations may be made by any Chicago Section member, and preferably but not necessarily, consist of a curriculum vitae and an accompanying letter setting forth the reasons for the nomination.

Nominations are due no later than December 30st, 2012, and should be sent to the Tanner Committee Chair:
